

Conducting Course Syllabus

Instructor: Mr. Markus Williams

Course Description: This conducting class is the study of the basic conducting pattern leading to expressive gestures. We will explore the three main areas the conductor functions: Personal Study, Rehearsal, and performance. The student must be able to function at a high musical level.

Materials Needed: Students must bring the following to each class: three ring binder folder, pen and pencil and paper.

National Music Content Standards:

Reading and notating music

Listening to, analyzing, and describing music

Evaluating music and music performance

Understanding music in relationship to history and culture

Grading:

Class Participation

Homework

Quizzes

Test

Final Exam/Project

Grading Scale:

A 94-100

B 85-93

C 70-84

D 60-69

F 59 and below

Course requirements:

Students must come to class and be on time. When not present or on time a note is required in order for it to be excused. Too many absences and tardy will have a negative affect on the students grade. Students are required to fully participate in the daily class activities and stay current on all assignments. The student must bring high musical knowledge to the course.