

DUKE ELLINGTON SCHOOL OF THE ARTS
DANCE DEPARTMENT

Course Syllabus

“MODERN II”

Arts Block

Instructor – Nikki Sutton-Mackey

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is the intermediate level of modern dance based on the Horton Technique devised to fortify, stretch and strengthen the body. This class focuses on continuation and progressions of the Lester Horton technique as well as physical technical skills. Daily participation in all class work is required including; reading and writing assignments/examinations; physical assignments, projects, and examinations; some choreographic/principles/process; attendance of selected performances and master classes/workshops; and open discussions of self expressed observations and opinions, ideas and concepts on dance as an art form. Through this approach, students will begin to actively apply a conscious knowledge of dance as it relates to humanity, tradition and social, philosophical and emotional perspectives.

GRADING SCALE

At the secondary, level, sixth (6th) grade through twelfth (12th) grade, marks/grades of A through F shall be assigned by the teacher to indicate the degree of achievement by the student of the content standards in each course. Results of the end of course exam will count for no more than 20% of the final grade. (Refer to Ellington's 2009-2010 Community Handbook)

Marks/Grades Shall Be As Follows:

A = 93-100

A- = 90-92

B+ = 87-89

B = 83-86

B- = 80-82

C+ = 79-77

C = 73-76

C- = 70-72

D+ = 67-69

D = 64-66

F = 63 and below

I = Incomplete (too little work submitted) Students have until 2 weeks after issuance of report cards to submit assignments and make-up individual physical assignments/exams (physical group projects excluded) Failure to complete work required within the above stated time frame will result in the Incomplete grade converting to an "F" (Failure).

M = Medical Once an injury has been verified by a physician and the student is deemed unable to participate for a minimum of two weeks and not more than one advisory, a letter grade of "C" or below will be administered for that period. If the injury is longer than one advisory, the student's tenure at Ellington must be revisited by parent, principal, student and dance faculty. (Refer to Dance Department 2009-2010 Handbook)

*The Medical Excuse Guidelines Shared in the Ellington Community Handbook Relates to Academic Courses/Classes Only, Not Physical Intense Arts Classes Such as Dance.

ATTENDANCE

Ellington's Attendance/Absence & Physician Policies Must be Adhered; Documented & Verified. (Refer to Ellington's Community Handbook 2009-2010)

Students and parents/care givers are held accountable for reporting all absences within 48 hours of the student's return. All letters must be submitted to the dean of Students or his designee for verification/approval and submitted to course instructor. Students with chronic unexcused attendance, may result in awarding a letter grade of "F."

For each class to which a student is tardy three (3) times, that student will accrue one unexcused absence. Five (5) or more unexcused absences per advisory for any class may result in the student receiving a grade of “FA” (failure due to absence) in that subject.

Excessive absences, even for legitimate reasons will have an adverse effect on the work presented and therefore on the grade earned.

Students who are absent for performances, field trips, and extracurricular activities are held accountable and responsible to secure and complete all written assignments, written quizzes, and written tests according to guidelines of Attendance Policies and Procedures established in the Ellington Handbook and at the discretion of the respective teacher. There are no make-ups for individual/group physical projects or other physical lesson plans missed.

Late written assignments will only be accepted one day after due date resulting in the grade being lowered 10 points from grading score actually received on work submitted.
