

DUKE ELLINGTON SCHOOL OF THE ARTS PRESENTS

A Summer Intensive In . . .

Dance

The intensive will expose students to the artistic and technical elements of modern dance and classical ballet. They will have conditioning and stretch classes, along with classes in the repertory of the Duke Ellington Dance Ensemble. Students will be given a foundation in dance through our summer core curriculum. This will increase their appreciation and awareness of dance as an art form.

- July 8th to August 2nd
- Mon – Fri, 10:00am – 4pm
- Contact: Charles Augins
- Charles.Augins@dc.gov
- 202-337-7958

Literary Media & Communications

This intensive will expose students to literary genres, the essay, creative non-fiction, micro-fiction, and media writing as well as how writing is rendered publicly. Deliverables from the workshop will be a "zine" that showcases student work, which will expose them to layout, design, and publication, as well as a performance of student work at the Bethesda Writer's Center at the end of the workshop.

- June 24th to July 12th
- Mon – Fri, 9:30am – 1:30pm
- Contact: Mark Williams
- mwill209@yahoo.com

Vocal Music

The Vocal Music program will give middle school and entering Ellington students a head start on the music skills needed for working at a high level of musical performance and understanding. There will be classes in Voice, Music Theory, Sight Singing, Choir, Movement, and Introduction to Acting, with a showcase performance at the conclusion of the Intensive.

- July 1st to July 18th
- Mon – Thurs, 9am – 1pm
- Contact: Mary Jane Ayers
- mja4457@aol.com

Instrumental Music

The program will provide beginning to intermediate music instruction for students starting at second grade for String (Violin, Viola, Cello and Bass) students and fourth grade for brass, woodwind, percussion, piano and guitar instrumentalists. In each area of concentration, classes were carefully developed by experienced artists and are taught by professional artists selected for their skill in working with beginning level students.

- July 15th to August 8th
- Mon – Thurs, 9am – 1pm
- Contact: Isaac Daniel
- ikedaniel@aol.com

Theatre

This program is a rigorous program that will introduce the student to the fundamentals of acting, voice/speech, improvisation and movement for the actor. The intensive will conclude with a showcase of work completed in the classroom.

- June 24th to July 5th
- Mon – Fri, 10am – 4pm
- Contact: Dawn Naser
- dlnaser@hotmail.com

See you in Summer 2013!

Join Duke Ellington School of the Arts for a summer of intensive training!

Auditions, Interviews, and fees are required for all programs. Please contact program coordinators for more details.